

Revere Copper Products, Inc.

One Revere Park. Rome, NY 13440

June 8, 2026

Revere Copper will be increasing its fabrication price $0.10/lb - $0.75/lb dependent upon product. The new prices will be effective with shipments between August 3rd 2026 and December 30th 2026.

A potential tariff announcement on refined copper is expected to be announced by the end of the month. Any changes to our raw material cost during 2026 will be reflected in our copper surcharge.

Our National Accounts Managers will be reaching out within the coming days to review the specific increases.

Sincerely,

Amy O'Shaughnessy
VP Sales & Marketing
